OUR VISION

Have a fleet of Wish Ambulances that can be operated across the state fulfilling final wishes to terminally ill West Australians.

ABOUT US

Ambulance Wish Western Australia's mission is to give terminally ill patients the resources, specialist transport and medical care they need to fulfil their final wishes.

SHOW YOUR SUPPORT

Ambulance Wish Western Australia is completely dependent on corporate partnerships, donations and community fundraising to ensure its outcomes are achieved.

Workplace Giving - also known as payroll giving - is an easy and effective way for you to donate to Ambulance Wish Western Australia through automated payroll deductions and reduce your taxable income.

Employees can contribute a small amount of their pre-tax salary to Ambulance Wish Western Australia via their payroll department and immediately receive the tax benefit. In simple terms, if you donate $20, it will (depending on your tax bracket) only cost you $12.60 but Ambulance Wish Western Australia will receive the full $20. If your employer chooses to match staff donations, the value of the donation will double, with the charity receiving $40.

By joining a Workplace Giving program and pledging to make a regular pre-tax donation from your pay, you are helping fulfil final wishes for terminally ill patients. Ambulance Wish Western Australia is run entirely on charitable donations and are managed by volunteers. All donations go to running Ambulance Wish Western Australia and fulfilling last wishes.

All Australian payroll systems can facilitate Workplace Giving donations, so starting should be as simple as nominating Ambulance Wish Western Australia as your charity of choice to your payroll department. They may also have a Workplace Giving form for you to complete and return to them. If not, please use the form below.
